Capital Campaign Receptions Begin This Week

The first reception for the Honoring Our Past, Uniting in Faith Capital Campaign begins on Tuesday evening. Invitations have been mailed and will continue to get mailed to all registered parishioners. When you receive your invitation, be sure to choose a date and time that works best for you to attend and mail it back to the Parish Center or place it in the collection basket at Mass, as soon as possible. We would like to have a count for each reception so that we know how much food to prepare and materials to have available. There will be several receptions to choose from throughout February and early March. If you have not received your invitation, please call the parish office at 223-2970 or Todd Koolakian at the same number. We want to make sure that all parishioners are invited.

Small Christian Community Lenten Reflection Series

Once again, we will be forming small groups for a Lenten Reflection Series on the Sunday readings. For the next three weeks, there will be sign-ups for home hosts and facilitators and participants at the front desk of the Parish Center. If you already have a group from past years and have a full group, you don't need to sign up. Materials will be available on-line or for copying from the center (more information to come). If you have room in your group let us now when and where you meet and how many you can add. For more details, or to sign up through e-mail send a message to scc@suttercreekparish.com.

St. Vincent de Paul Society Thanks You

The St. Vincent de Paul Society would like to thank St. Katharine Drexel parishioners for their extremely generous donations during our Beggar's Sunday collection last weekend. Your donations exceeded $3,400 which could not have come at a better time. Our phone has been ringing off the hook and, in the past, two weeks alone, we were able to help 23 families with PG&E, rent, propane, water, firewood, and even food. Only through you were we able to do this. May God bless you all for your kindness!

Parishioner Needs Transportation

Dorothy MacDonald, a parishioner from Immaculate Conception Church, has medical issues and has a need for transportation for various medical appointments and other needs. If you can help, please call her at 267-5166.

Think of Pre-Planning

At the time of our entering into eternal life many stressful decisions have to be made by our loved ones. We can help them by choosing exactly where our remains should be placed. Sites that have plots available are in three Catholic cemeteries: St. Patrick, Immaculate Conception and St. Bernard. All are affordable and will provide a consecrated space. Please contact Deacon Ed or Francine for further information, 223-2970 or 267-0775 or you can send an email to cemeteryadmin@stkatharinedrexel.com

Never Underestimate the Cookie Ministry!

Do you want to get more involved but don't know what you can do? You have a talent. Yes, you do. God gave you one. Many things need to be done in the churches and congregations. Baking is an example of one of the talents you may not see as necessary or important to the church. However, remember the last funeral you attended. Afterwards, you gathered, sat, ate, and talked with people. Someone made that food; baked those desserts. Look around the church, watch those people milling about before Mass. They have a talent they are sharing. You may not have that same talent, but you have a talent. God wants you to share it.

Immaculate Conception will be hosting a ministry fair soon. Please attend and start to think about what talent you have that can be shared to further God's reign on earth; even if it is to bake cookies to give others some comfort during a time of distress. More information in upcoming bulletins.

Catholics Returning Home Program Begins in February

Attention Teens!

We will also gather on Ash Wednesday morning for a prayer breakfast prior to attending the St. Patrick Ash Wednesday service. Details to follow.

A Lenten Study series for teens will be meeting on Monday nights beginning February 27. Please contact Marci Russell at 217-7145 if you are interested in attending and for more information.

See page 11 of the bulletin for contact information regarding A.C.T. if you have any questions or comments.

“Do this in Memory of Me.”

For 2000 years Jesus’ words have been echoed through the Church’s celebration of Mass. Over the centuries the essential elements of the Mass have remained constant, while the ritual action has changed. Did you know that the origin of the entrance procession was an adaptation of the Roman military procession? Did you know that a basilica was not always a church? It is not too late. Join us for the next two sessions and learn how our Sunday celebration has evolved.

History of the Mass Part 2	Sun., Feb. 12	1-3PM
Celebrating Mass Today	Sun., Mar. 4	1-3PM

All sessions are held at the Parish Center. Pre-registration is necessary for planning purposes. To register or with questions, call Joan Nikolai at 295-5528.

Immaculate Conception Men’s Club Donut Sunday Next Weekend

Next Sunday will be the Men’s Club Donut Sunday in the hall after Mass. Come and join us.

Altar Flowers Needed at Immaculate Conception

We all admire and appreciate our beautiful little Church, but it doesn't get that way by itself. Throughout the years, faithful volunteers have supplied the natural and wondrous flowers and other enhancements to our Eucharistic celebrations.

On this Christmas Season, and to celebrate the new year, we issue a new call to parishioners to sign up to decorate the altar during 2012. We need just 40 families (yes, even men can participate) to be responsible for flowers once during the year. Please help us.

The sign-up sheets are posted on the bulletin board in the vestibule of the church. Thank you in advance for your continued care and devotion to a worship space for all. Francine

St. Blaise
Bishop, Martyr
Feast Day:
February 3

It is not known precisely when or where St. Blaise lived, but according to tradition he was a bishop of Sebaste, Armenia, in the early part of the fourth century, and suffered martyrdom under the Roman emperor Licinius, who had commanded the governor of the province, one Agricolaus, to prevent the spread of Christianity in his territory. After this edict had been promulgated, Blaise fled to the mountains and lived in a cave frequented by wild beasts. He used his skill to heal the animals that he found wounded or sick, and when the emperor's hunters, bent on collecting wild animals for the royal games, discovered him in this cave, they carried him off to Agricolaus as a special prize.

On the way, the story goes, they met a poor woman whose pig had been seized by a wolf. At the command of Blaise, the wolf restored the pig to its owner, alive and unhurt. During the course of this journey he also miraculously cured a child who was choking to death on a fishbone. For this reason St. Blaise is often invoked by persons suffering from throat trouble. When he had reached the capital and was in prison awaiting execution, the old woman whose pig he had saved came to see him, bringing two fine wax candles to dispel the gloom of his dark cell. When he was finally killed, he is supposed to have been tortured with an iron comb or rake, and afterwards beheaded. In the West there was no cult honoring St. Blaise prior to the eighth century

One of the Fourteen Holy Helpers, his emblems are an iron comb and a wax taper
